

HC HC
1979

Haverford College is pleased to announce an important change in admissions policy. Beginning in September 1980, it will enroll freshman women.

At the same time, Bryn Mawr and Haverford have reaffirmed their strong cooperative relationship. The broad range of opportunities offered through academic cooperation and joint extra-curricular activities will continue to be available to all students at both colleges.