

Clemson Conquerors in Juniors Announce Subjects of Hoped-for Masterful Orations

Game Hard Fought and Fast—Teams About Evenly Matched

The Wildcats failed to shake the hold in the game with the Clemson Tigers, and went down in defeat by the score of 28 to 26. The game was clean and some streaks of fast play were noticeable at certain stages of the game, especially at the beginning of the second half, when Davidson opened up with a terrific offensive.

Hall, for Davidson, drew first blood by scoring a goal from the side line by a spectacular overhead shot. Clemson came back strong however, when Colbert scored a long shot. The play was slow after the first half, but Clemson shot most all of its attempts, especially the long shots in which Davidson was not able to make any progress. Time after time long attempts would roll out of the basket for Roberts. Many technical fouls on both sides slowed the play considerably and poor passing did likewise. Clemson by the foresaid long shots enabled to draw away from the local quint and the end of the first half found the Tigers leading, 17 to 9.

The Wildcats opened up the second half with a whirlwind attack and soon were only one point behind Clemson. Then the offensive cracked, and the remainder of the half was played in a see-saw fashion, first one side and then the other scoring. Clemson hit a stride a few minutes before the final whistle and completely shut down on the Davidson quint, keeping the ball under the Tigers goal nearly the whole time.

Schenck, for the victors, featured and his shooting and floor work was the deciding factor in the Tiger victory. For the losers, Hall and Roberts played good while Romefelt at center fought hard in the final period. The defensive formation used by Clemson at the tip-off completely broke up most of the Red and Black plays.

The score:

Clemson	Position	Davidson
Schenck (7)	Forward	Roberts (12)
Colbert (17)	Forward	Hall (10)
Boggs (2)	Center	Striebeck
Cole	Guard	Romefelt (4)
Black (2)	Guard	Chalmers
Substitutes: Shepherd for Romefelt, Romefelt for Striebeck. Referee: Long, Charlotte "Y." Timekeeper: Douglas. Scorer: Schenck.

"FLA" COUNCIL SHALL BACKUP THIS WEEK

Due to their being so much sickness on the Hill as well as to the absence of many others The Davidsonian Staff and Reporters were in a very depleted condition when this issue went to press. In view of the above circumstances it has been found necessary to reduce the size of the paper to six pages this week. The students are asked to bear with the Staff while handicapped in this manner.

Large Class Necessitates Five Sections—Subjects Cover the Seen and Unseen, the Known and the Unknown

To every Junior class at Davidson there comes only too quickly the biggest day they have had in their college career, and now the class of '21 stands upon the brink of this long anticipated yet undesired occasion. Even now the casual observer has cause to notice the approaching storm by the muttering of some who are already fortunate enough to have learned their speeches. Occasionally is also to be heard the sound as of a thunder clap as these soon-to-be orators rise to the dizzy heights of some sublime climax before an imaginary audience, while practicing the orations which they hope will bring everlasting fame to their names.

The class which will soon be so conspicuously placed before the eyes of the public is the largest seen in action in Shearer chapel, and for this reason there will be five sections of 12 speakers each.

The speeches, if subjects indicate anything, will be varied and interesting, as they cover the seen and the unseen, the known and the unknown, the hearable and the un- heard, it is to be trusted that they will all at least be sufficiently interesting to hold the attention of the audience. Come early and avoid the rush.

Below is given the list of speakers and their subjects:

First Section.

- E. M. Alexander, West, Miss.: An International Trademark.
- N. P. Baba, Uramia, Persia: The Tragedy of Tragedies.
- J. G. Barnette, Davidson, N. C.: The Value of Athletics.
- E. A. Beaty, Lancaster, S. C.: Verba In Ventos.
- J. R. Boulware, Jr., Eu., Lakeland, Fla.: The Salesmanship of Chemistry.
- C. G. Brown, Phi., Charlotte, N. C.: The Young Man of Today.
- C. K. Brown, Phi., Cleveland, N. C.: The Success of Defeat.
- E. H. Brown, Cleveland, N. C.: The Iron Mule.
- J. S. Brown, Jr., Phi., Hendersonville, N. C.: The Southern Highlander.
- S. A. Burgess, Kingston, S. C.: What Davidson Needs.
- W. W. Carter, Mount Airy, N. C.: America's Part in International Reconstruction.
- J. E. Cassell, Christiansburg, Va.: Was It Worth While?

Second Section.

- H. B. Culbreth, Parkton, N. C.: The Inventive Genius of America.
- W. P. Cumming, Eu., Toyohashi, Japan, Yamato No Miria.
- A. L. Currie, Jr., Phi., Fayetteville, N. C.: The Task of Young America.

Sponsor of the Recent Davidsonian Banquet

Davidsonian Banquet at Selwyn Hotel Elegant Affair

Staff and Invited Guests Present—Interesting Speeches Made—Wilson Boulevard Promised

On last Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Selwyn Hotel, Charlotte, N. C., the management and staff of The Davidsonian gave their annual banquet for the year 1935. Under the management of C. J. Matthews, business manager, and with the aid of the staff, one of the most delightful and successful banquets ever given by a Davidson College organization was staged and carried out in every detail.

At 7:30 sharp the young men assembled at the door of the banquet hall and as each young lady appeared she was accompanied by her escort around the table to their respective places. Then after the blessing the guests were seated around the table, which had been decorated for the occasion with baskets of roses connected by long chains of smilax and favors consisting of menus of the banquet and individual boxes of mints, carrying out the Red and Black color scheme throughout. The table was arranged in the shape of the letter "T," and the staff and their guests were seated on either side of the long table, while at the smaller table the toastmaster, Mr. Miles, and the other speakers of the evening were seated.

Mayor McNinch was prevented from attending on account of illness, but a note of congratulation was received from him. Mr. Askew was also unable to be there on account of illness. Those present were:

A. L. Wilson, A. M. Mitchell, J. McD. Richards, Carl Matthews, J. W. Witherspoon, Hugh A. Query,

S. A. Robinson, R. W. Miles, J. E. Cassell, E. L. Jackson, J. C. McKill, L. G. Calhoun, T. Spence, J. Boneman, Dwight Chalmers, J. M. Gaston, Carl Long, L. B. Schenck, H. A. Hill, L. L. McAlister, T. H. Wilson, Hon. T. L. Kirkpatrick, R. M. Miller, Jr., Jasper Hutto, Mrs. M. E. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mallard, Mrs. J. P. Caldwell, Miss Bert Willeford, Miss Lavinia Boyer, Miss Adelaide Caldwell, Miss Leilia Marsh, Miss Elizabeth Bruns, Miss Elizabeth Brown, Miss Eloise Doney, Miss Magurete Anderson, Miss Sallie Schenck, and Miss Hannah Allover.

Mr. Miles, being toastmaster, on every occasion proved himself fully capable and became an inspiration to the speakers whom he introduced.

Mr. Jackson was the first speaker of the occasion and emphasized very forcefully the need of a college paper to a college and how The Davidsonian of this year had come so near filling this need.

Mr. Cassell spoke on "The Needs of The Davidsonian," and Matthews on "The Future of The Davidsonian." After this Mr. Miller, president of the Davidson Alumni Association, spoke on "The Importance of The Davidsonian to the Alumni," and since he believed that the alumni of a college was its greatest asset, he contended that The Davidsonian could be of greatest service to college as a connecting link between the alma mater and the alumni.

Mr. Hutto made some valuable suggestions as to the betterment of (Continued on page 6)

Flu Far From Epidemic Stage—No Need to Fear

Disease Present Only in Mild Form—No More New Cases

Like a thunderbolt out of a clear sky came the flu epidemic upon Davidson last Monday. Within the 24 hours after the first case there were 12 victims at the infirmary, and within 48 hours the infirmary was full and Louisiana dormitory was turned into an emergency ward. Forty men had reported and were found to have Spanish influenza before the course of the epidemic was abated. It ceased almost as soon as it had started, for since last Friday only three new cases have been reported. The type of influenza here has proven to be very mild. Only one student is in a serious condition, and the convalescent ward in Rumples is already beginning to fill up with those who are well but need careful attention. The following students have been the victims:

Buchanan, W. S.; Davidson, R. E.; Forgey, D.; Gibson, A. V.; Wooten, L. A.; Morris, Z. A.; Lowry, Thos.; Hunter, J. E.; Horton, T. L.; Harrell, W.; Askew, S. H.; Whitesides, J.; Warnock, K.; Wright, F. J.; Sample, G. D.; Booth, J. P.; Ratchford, W. S.; Thompson, C. A.; Dantzer, M. O.; Bethea, T. C.; Morris, H. H.; Fleming, G. D.; Simmons, C. P.; Dick, R. L.; McCrummen, J.; Thompson, B. C.; Welkison, L. H.; Johnson, V. D.; Graham, H.; White, L. V.; Farmer, G. D.; Wallace, R.; Richards, J. M.; Brady, S. W. In the convalescent ward are Cavanaugh, J. A.; Robinson, W. S.; McLauren, J. L.

Class Football Postponed—Will be Played Later

Bad Weather and "Flu" Epidemic Cause Athletic Association to Reach This Decision

At a meeting of the Athletic Association last Monday night it was decided to postpone class football on account of the bad weather and the "flu" epidemic. The games will be played in the latter part of March and the first of April, so that the basketball men can play. Practice will begin about two weeks before the games, so as to make sure that the men are in good physical condition.

The games will be conducted under the general supervision of Coach Hengeveld, but each team will also have from its class some varsity man as its special coach. (No Varsity or D. C. men are allowed to play). Such football material as the association has on hand will be distributed equally between the classes and balls will be provided. Class football will cost the individuals less this year than ever before.

Most emphatically, class football is not being called off. It has been postponed several times in preceding years as there has always been a good deal of dissatisfaction about the date. Indeed, the association is working on a plan to have the schedule moved permanently, either to March or December. But there has always been some kind of class football. Class football was played a great while before intercollegiate athletics were permitted.

ATHLETIC NEWS

NEW APPOINTMENTS

MADE IN R. O. T. C.

Class for Officers and Non-Coms to be held Monday Night.

In order to fill the vacancies caused by some of the officers and non-commissioned officers not returning to the battalion after the holidays, and also to weed out some who were not as efficient as they should be, Colonel Mueller has made the following appointments: Lieutenant McCaskill to be captain; Second Lieutenant Doubles to be first lieutenant; Second Lieutenant Phillips to be first lieutenant; First Sergeant Hunter to be second lieutenant; Sergeant Spence to be second lieutenant; Supply Sergeant Liston to be color sergeant, and First Lieutenant Romefelt to be battalion adjutant. These new officers have already taken command and are doing their bit towards making the Davidson R. O. T. C. the best in the South.

In the afternoon Lieutenant Romefelt is conducting a class in bayonet work. It is the purpose of this class to prepare a few men so that they can give the instruction to the rest of the battalion. The course will extend over a week or two as it is essential that these men have a good knowledge of all phases of the work. Those attending this class are Doubles, Roddey, Mitchell, Sample, Rogers, McFadden, Breitenhiert, Lowry, McCaskill, Phillips, Spence, Richards, J. G., Richards, J. M., Boulware, Davis, A. J., and Hunter, C.

In order that the officers and non-coms may be better prepared on the work for each drill, Colonel Mueller has instituted a class for the officers, first sergeants and platoon sergeants. This class is to meet every Monday night in the military room in the gymnasium, and all those concerned are expected to be present.

VIRGINIA BASKETBALL TRIP CANCELLED

"Flu" Epidemic the Cause—Balance of Schedule to be Played, if Possible.

On account of the influenza epidemic Manager Allison had to cancel quite a number of games. Last week was to have been a basketball week, but three of the four games were cancelled, Auburn, Guilford and Elon being the ones. The trip through Virginia has also been called off.

The Red and Black Quint is anxious to get another chance at some of the colleges that they lost to on the trip. As the games with Guilford and Elon were cancelled, another date will be fixed on which to play them. A third game will be played with Carolina. At present each team has one game apiece, and this third game is expected to be the most exciting of the season. It will probably be played at Greensboro; the place has not been definitely decided. As the trip through Virginia was cancelled, plans are being made to play several games with the Charlotte Y. Charlotte has a strong team and no doubt these will be close contests.

The team is looking forward to the trip through South Carolina. This trip will be made in about two weeks.

Lycium Member for This Week Cancelled.

Due to the presence of "flu" it has become necessary to cancel the Lycium attraction which was to have come off February 12. The management will endeavor to secure an attraction in place of the cancelled number at some later date.

On March 12th, Packard the Magician will be here and on March 13th, Reno the Magician. Lycium tickets have been refunded which they can look forward to.

LITERARY NEWS

The program for the joint meeting of the two sections of the Eumenean Literary Society to be held on Saturday, February 14, 1920, is as follows:

Affirmative: Askew, Ogden, Mellwaine
Negative: Mahood, Bitzer, Matthews
After the debate new officers will be elected.

PROF. FULLBRIGHT LECTURES ON LITERARY VALUE OF THE BIBLE

At the last meeting of the Sigma Upsilon, Professor Fullbright spoke. His subject was "The Literary Value of the Bible." He showed in his speech that the Bible contained some of the finest expressions of literary talent that could be found in the world today.

Some of our finest poetry is found in Psalms. The finest Epigram in Proverbs and the sayings of Christ.

He closed by showing that the Bible could not only be prized because of its hope of salvation, but because of its literary use.

All the members enjoyed his talk very much. At the next meeting criticisms will be held on the Davidson College Magazine and a few current books and stories.

EU'S INSTALL OFFICERS FOL'S FAIL TO MEET

Many Boys Absent on Account of Sickness—Live Meeting in Eu. Society.

Eu. Society Saturday Night.

The meeting of the Eumenean Society on February 7 was interesting and lively, despite the fact that many members were absent. The question for debate, "Resolved, That the Bible should be taught in the public schools of America," required, of course, somewhat different treatment by the two sides. The affirmative relied upon eloquence and persuasion to carry their side, while the negative depended more on reason and argument. Baba, of the affirmative, opened the debate with a plea for the Bible, based on its literary excellence. Price, the next speaker for the affirmative, asserted that he had six points to prove. But he based his argument mainly on the one proposition that the Bible was the foundation of all society, law and ethics, and maintained that the foundation deserved as honored a place as the structure based upon it. The last speaker for the affirmative, Gamble, overlooked the rules of debate which prohibit quoting the Bible. He referred repeatedly to passages in the Bible, presenting them as authority. The first speaker of the negative was Meng. He showed that teaching the Bible in the public schools would be, in spirit and principle, contrary to the constitution. H. H. Smith, the second speaker for the negative, held up for consideration the low estimate which public school pupils would place upon the Bible, were it made a text-book. Sorrels had been appointed on the negative at the last minute, and delivered the final speech. He argued that it would be impossible to find teachers who could teach the Bible in a manner satisfactory to everyone; no Protestant would be willing to have his children taught the Bible by Athiests, Jews, or Catholics, and vice versa. The decision of the judges was in favor of the negative.

The program closed with an oration by R. R. Craig on "America's Place in the World Today."

The new officers were then installed. But, the inaugural addresses were postponed, in order that the society might be able to attend the basketball game.

The Monday night section of the Eumenean Society held its regular meeting in the society hall at the usual hour. The subject which was debated was: Resolved, That the Bible should be taught in the Public Schools. On account of the disturbance caused by the influenza, the attendance was not large. Those present looked quite conspicuous among so many vacant seats.

The argument for the affirmative was upheld by Manning and Houghton, while the negative side was defended by Mauze, T. W., and McAlpine. Mr. Manning contended that the question was a most practical one, while on the contrary, Mr. Mauze took the law into his hands and stated the unconstitutionality of the proposal. Also, in turn Mr. Houghton stated the fact that the Bible was used in all state affairs and that people in general do not understand the Bible in the proper light. Therefore it should be placed on the curriculum of instruction in public schools. All this, only to be contradicted by Mr. McAlpine upon the statement that Bible is too complicated a book, both historical and literary, to give pupils of public school age sufficient instruction in the subject. The committee appointed to weigh the merits of the debate, after considerable deliberation, agreed that the affirmative argument consumed more time, but that neither side had proved anything. The house showed its disapproval by favoring the negative.

Mr. Hollandsworth gave the second installment of his series of A. E. F. speeches. His subject this time was "Pershing's Own." Due to the neglect of the president in not appointing a critic till late in the program, and at that time appointing Mr. Hollandsworth, proved quite amusing. He criticized his own oration, and after a few remarks thoroughly convinced himself (it seems) also the audience that without doubt his was by far the best speech of the evening.

The society after attending to a little business adjourned, much to the relief of all present.

Miss Rena Potts has returned to her work in Bishopville, Ga. She has been visiting for several weeks with relatives here and has just recently made a trip to Baltimore and New York.

EDITORIAL

Information from Louisiana Emergency Hospital Ward says that Askeew will write another editorial on how to remain immune from the "flu" as soon as he recovers from his present indisposition due to this disease.

Laugh and keep healthy is a wise saying, so why the necessity of cancelling the Lyceum number for this week?

THE CHARLOTTE SPIRIT.

It has not been many months ago since the Davidson student body was complaining about the Charlotte attitude towards the college. It seemed like the newspapers were not interested in anything that Davidson tried to do. Their athletic games staged were unattended, in brief Charlotte appeared to the students to be utterly indifferent and cold towards Davidson. Such an accusation cannot be made now. Charlotte's newspapers and Charlotte's citizens have more than made up for past neglect. A real spirit of fellowship and appreciation has developed on the part of Charlotte for Davidson, which is logically and actually Charlotte's college. Those attending the State College-Davidson football game last fall will testify readily to the cordial reception and support Charlotte showed for Davidson. Those attending the recent Davidsonian banquet can justly praise Charlotte's newspapers for their publicity and support and Charlotte's leading citizens for their kind remarks and pledged support.

It would be hard to say what caused this change—it isn't really necessary. We know that there is a great change coming over the two places—it may be that Davidson has shown that they wanted to be noticed and that they were relying on Charlotte for support. Whatever the cause is, let it continue until Charlotte will be 100 per cent Davidson, and Davidson will be almost a Charlotte institution. We are indeed grateful to Charlotte for all that she has done. In return we will play all the athletic games there we can and make ourselves conspicuous for Charlotte at every opportunity.

CUTS.

The past season for class and chapel cuts closed January 20 and we are now on the first month of the new season. Husband your cuts even if you are not trying to make the honor roll. You are making a mistake in cutting classes this early in the long, hard days that lie ahead of you in the lazy, dreamy days of Spring. And then when you miss a chapel you are breaking away from the healthy routine of three meals a day and regular hours. When you miss a class, excused or unexcused, you are missing something for which you pay not in money alone but in time necessary to make up the information lost. Lastly, it may affect your grade in that study, because no professor is willing to give as good a mark to one who is not regular in attendance.

The heights by students reached and kept

Were not attained by cutting class,

But made while their companions slept

Who had a struggle just to pass.

A NEW DISEASE COMING.

Another epidemic, more fatal to college grades and college success, has reached Davidson today and may prove very harmful later in the Spring. The most disastrous part about it is that it captures men with strong constitutions as well as the weak ones. It is very dangerous.

The desire to be out in the open when the flowers begin to bloom and the trees begin to bud and when nature puts on new colors and new life, to be out of the dark and gloomy study rooms into the luring sunshine is almost irresistible. It is like unto sitting on the front porch in the moonlight, when another is there.

You remember Tennyson said, in Locksley Hall: "In the Spring a Young Man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." So you see we are warning you ahead of the time of another danger. Fellows, beware of Spring fever and its accompaniments!

Good Advice.

"Take plenty of exercise, eat plenty of good, wholesome food, wear proper clothing, keep your feet dry and you need not be afraid of catching influenza!" Is not this quotation familiar to everyone these days? Common sense always pays; in questions of sanitation, take the doctor's advice! It would be indeed foolish to omit all precautions after the spread of the local "infectious cold" has been stopped and thus fall an easy prey to more hostile germs collected from all sections by the fellows who have gone home.

But how many fellows really take regular exercise? Even if you respect the "integrity" of all your bones and the wisdom of the doctor's advice too much to help make a record for your class in football, remember his advice about keeping your feet warm and don't get cold feet on all exercise! Take a regular hike around the track or a game on the tennis court, both seasons will soon be open. Don't be too modest and retiring to try a boxing bout! The only prerequisite for a basketball game is a pair of rubber-soled shoes. (Just remember that U. S. A. "hardboys" are neither rubber-soled nor heeled). How about it "Brass."

Sunday Athletics?

Say, fellows, of course the whole student body was "sorry" there were no religious meetings Sunday, but how many agree that a little football practice is a fit substitution?

Of course every fellow has his own ideas about his duties and privileges as a Christian. Although no system of hypocrisy is to be advocated, it is for outside reasons that this practice is to be most reasonably opposed. In America the majority rules. Approximately 99.9

per cent of the fellows here are members of the Presbyterian church. Furthermore, the Presbyterian church endows this institution and actually gives each fellow over 50 per cent of the advantages he gets here. It is needless to state the principles for which both these institutions have stood since their founding until this day. Then do you think any fellow on the hill would willingly misrepresent that "old Davidson spirit" as even appearing to encourage Sunday athletics by indulging in them on the campus! Surely not, if he thinks what he is doing! "C. E. S."

What Is the Difference?

This is one of those cases of six of one and half a dozen of the other. We were to have a basketball game in the local gym last Tuesday night, but our far-seeing executives saw fit to have the Elon team remain from our floor in order that our skirts might remain unspotted from the "flu" epidemic. But—did we hear a warning against attending chapel in a body the following mornings or was there a ban put on an hour's lecture to the battalion?

No!—this was not deemed wise. We ask you a fair-minded question: Which would be the most harmful—listening to a lecture or to stand in a well ventilated gymnasium and cheer your own Red and Black machine on to add more victories to our credit?

It was suggested some time ago that a public bulletin board would serve in the place of chapel and would not this be a good time to give it an initial tryout.

But—what is the difference between six of one and half a dozen of the other?

E. Pluribus Unum.

Sunday Breakfast on Deck Again.

In The Davidsonian for January 29, 1920, Typo brought forward a proposal regarding Sunday breakfast which I am sure met the emphatic approval of the student body as a whole. No doubt the ladies would be "more than glad" to put the cost of this meal into the Saturday supper or the Sunday dinner. It seems to me that the only thing necessary to put this plan thru is for the student body to have a meeting and vote on it. Mr. President, it is up to you to call this meeting and it is up to us to abolish once and for all this Sunday breakfast which benefits only the conscientious (?) few and which is the cause of so much worry and trouble to the boarding house keepers.

NINE cases out of ten, the man who once smokes a WDC Pipe becomes a life member of the WDC club. He can't help it, because a WDC is certainly a man's size smoke. It's as sweet and mellow as carefully selected French briar and expert seasoning can make it. Not only material of the highest order, and designs that are most pleasing—all combine to make the WDC Pipe a smoke of peace, contentment and satisfaction. A man's smoke. Any good dealer will confirm this.

Who, What and Where Among the Alumni

U. S. Alexander, '14, and Z. V. McMillian, '17, were licensed by the State Board of Law in North Carolina at its meeting last week.

Rev. Plumer Smith, '12, who is at home on his first furlough from Africa, made a delightful address on Wednesday evening. He also showed a number of curios. He leaves this month for Africa. Rev. Mr. Smith is a brother of Hugh Smith, of the Senior class.

R. D. Hall, '19, former major of the Davidson Gun-toasters Association attended the dance in Charlotte Saturday night. Mr. Hall, when interviewed by a Davidsonian reporter, said that he is enjoying life working as a bookkeeper in a Cotton Mill in his home town, Belmont, N. C.

Clark Minter who is working with the Rockefeller Research Bureau has patented a new process for manufacturing ammonia. He is continuing his work along research lines at the Johns Hopkins laboratories.

Hugh Minter returned from South America last week. He is with the U. S. Shipping Board and has been to Chile and Peru to study the port facilities and trade outlook in those countries. He expects to sail in a week or so for Odessa Russia on similar business.

Russell Minter who was married at Edgewood, Penn., last week has successfully passed examination for a consular position and expects to be attached to the U. S. Embassy at Brussels.

"Chink" Wilkinson was a visitor on the campus this week, coming to see his brother Louis who is a patient in the Infirmary with influenza. "Chink" is practicing law at Madison, Wisconsin and is also teaching law at the University of Wisconsin. He served in France with the Sixth Division.

CAMPUSISMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Davidson were on the Hill last week. Their son, R. E. Davidson, accompanied them home.

The parents of H. H. Massey, one of the "flu" patients, were on the Hill last week.

"Bobbie" Long was called home the first of the week because of the illness of his mother.

The father of "Pinkey" Simmons another one of the "flu" patients payed him a short visit.

It is reported that there are only three seriously ill with influenza, now in the Infirmary.

L. O. Hammett, while making a visit home, took influenza and has been confined to his bed since.

Dr. Harding is slowly recovering from his operation.

The influenza seems to be attacking professors as well as students, as Drs. McConnell, and Wood have taken the "flu" but are doing nicely.

Boys Benefit of Boarding House by Barnes' Closing.

The boys boarding at Mrs. Barnes boarding house were quite surprised when it was announced at dinner Friday that the Club would be closed for several days. This was made necessary by the illness of Miss Florence Barnes and her mother, the former having a slight attack of "flu."

Practically all the boys secured places at other boarding houses, while a few are trying "Smiley's." All the boys who board at Mrs. Barnes' wish her and her daughter a speedy recovery.

TOWN NEWS.

Mrs. Barnes and Miss Florence Barnes are not considered to be very sick and it is thought that they will soon be able to re-open their boarding house.

The Misses Schofield are rapidly recovering from cases of influenza.

Mrs. White has been forced to close her boarding house temporarily as she has contracted "flu."

The Davidson Graded School was closed last Thursday.

MR. JACKSON EFFICIENT

College and graduated with the class of 1904. Afterwards he finished a course of general accountancy and commercial law at the Walton School of Commerce, Chicago.

He taught one year at Mayesville, S. C., and then two years at Belmont, N. C. During the period of 1909-13 he was Secretary and Treasurer and Business Manager of the Mountain Retreat Association at Montreat. Here he also operated the two hotels during the summer seasons.

Mr. Jackson was elected Treasurer and Business Manager of Davidson College at the Trustees' meeting at Commencement, 1913, and took up his work at the college in November of that year. He passed in 1917 the North Carolina State Board examination for Certified Public Accountant. His work at Davidson in putting the college finances on an up-to-date business basis has been much more valuable than a casual observer would realize. Reports from auditors of the college records speak very highly of his work.

Prior to Mr. Jackson's coming many of the administrative duties were divided among the members of the faculty. These have been centralized and this is a great convenience to the students, and makes a much more smoothly working system.

Mr. Jackson began a course in Accounting during the S. A. T. C. This has proved so popular that it is now a permanent part of Davidson's curriculum.

To sum up Mr. Jackson as he looks to a student, one word is necessary—efficiency. Performing almost daily a host of duties, always ready to straighten out any difficulty that happens. Himself a perfect machine, he makes the affairs of the college a true reflection of himself.

He touches the life of the student at many points, and it is always to make things more pleasant. He means much to the college as an administrator, we admire him as a friend we like him.

DAVIDSONIAN BANQUET

the paper and possible improvements. Then the guests were honored by a few words from two of the ladies present, Mrs. J. P. Caldwell, of The Charlotte Observer, spoke on the excellence of The Davidsonian as a college publication, and Miss Lavinia Boyer, as sponsor of the banquet, expressed most charmingly her sentiments on being chosen as sponsor of such a paper.

The last speech of the evening was delivered by Colonel Kirkpatrick, on a subject that held the interest of every one present, "The Wilson Highway." And when he announced it was his intention to see the scheme carried out by the end of 18 months and to have Davidson College and Charlotte connected by a paved highway and electric lighted, it was heartily applauded. He was of the opinion that this highway would be a connecting link which would by all means make Charlotte a greater city and Davidson a larger and much more attractive college.

The banquet from the standpoint of eats was a howling success. It was an easy matter to tell that the younger members of the party were from Davidson, although after 10 courses they all appeared happy and well satisfied. The dinner was excellent in preparation and serving. The menu cards were as follows:
